

him Corpus Christi. My wife also wanted to go south if possible. After I was there two months, they needed a cashier here at Corpus. As a result, Mr Thompson decided to send me here. Naturally I was well pleased.

The parent company has a wonderful reputation so I feel quite fortunate in being with them. I owe you many thanks for the recommendation you gave me. Also I might say you need have no fear regarding my conduct. I'm firmly convinced an "event of the past" helped me to become more of a man. Since then, I have often regretted the embarrassing position it placed you in. It made me wake up + do some constructive thinking.

I married a girl (a red head)