

Alvin C. ...

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Leslie Waters, assistant professor of economics.                                     | Speaks well on current topics in the fields of finance and transportation.                          |
| Henry Werner, men's student advisor, professor of chemistry, and state food analyst. | Charming speaker in either the field of student life or in scientific subjects, particularly foods. |
| R. H. Wheeler, professor of psychology.  | Psychology. Also research project on trends in world history.                                       |
| Marjorie Whitney, head of the department of design.                                  | Arts and crafts training and future possibilities in these fields.                                  |