

Frank Anneberg is doing fine work in the Department of Physical Education. He is particularly interested in gymnastics, has a fine influence with the boys, and I believe he would make a successful physical education teacher.