

than any body and the boys will do every thing possible to win it for you, and next in line they will want to win it for them selves and the team as a whole, but see if you could have them slip me just a little piece of it. I won't rest easy until I hear that you beat them. "good"

I think I would give one of my arms to see that, I wouldn't mind playing, although I realize I probably wouldn't do much good.

We are slated to get out of here MAR 19, so I have hopes of being home for my birthday the 20, I sure hope so, because my mother will get a big charge out of it.
