

nothing but set-ups on the laid run. As far as I am concerned I think that's pretty good, the fact that we have that opportunity to run hard and pick up a few tricks or gain just a little from it.

No matter how little it is, it will always help make bigger things.

This weather is terrible, One cold day, then one warm day, all of the time it is moist + damp, every body seems to have colds, and I am not excused. But on the whole it isn't half-bad.

Aubrey McCall from Okla. is in the barracks, right next door.
As of yet have not seen him.

I managed to get a few chippings etc as the results of
