1426 Ohio Street,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Mrs. Allphin:

In the morning edition of the University Daily Kansan on September 29 there is a feature story on "Swimming Pool Gets Tropical Murals on Walls."

I just wanted you to know that this article was written without Mr. Jim Bell interviewing me, and I was much chagrined at the article as it appeared. I have not been in the Union Building for over a year to buy a coke - not that I would not drink one there, but I haven't been in, nor have I seen Carol Johnson's murals upon the wall.

This very clever journalist wrote this article as his own brain child.

I am only saying this to you in the light of our conversation Wednesday evening. I am endeavoring to contact Mr. James Scoggins, the painter, so that Herbert and I may have a discussion on the subject.

Very sincerely yours,

P.S. I have just talked to Mr. Scoggins and he tells me that Herbert gave him the idea for painting the scenes after he came back from Tulsa. I am sending a note to Mr. Dill asking that Mr. Allphin be given credit in a story in the Kansan.
