

May 12, 1944.

Mr. Norman Jeter,
Attorney at Law,
First National Bank Building,
Hays, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Jeter:

I will leave Lawrence Sunday night and will arrive in Hays at 7:30 Monday morning and will go direct to the hotel. It will not be necessary for anyone to meet me, so don't go to that bother.

I won't have too much sleep, so I will catch up on my lost sleep and besides I have two textbooks that I prepare for a course so I will be busy at the hotel. Do not feel that you have to make any special provision for me. When it is convenient for you to phone I will be glad to hear from you later in the morning and will be ready to follow your desires in the matter of speaking.

I will catch the train out for Lawrence that night.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH