Dear Doc:

Just a few lines to acknowledge receipt of "Jayhawk Rebounds -- No. 17." It doesn't seem possible that the number is so high -- I can imagine the work involved, but the personal satisfaction must be great. I hope you can soon discontinue them; i.e. this war brought to a successful (if possible) ending.

I was relieved and glad to hear the news about Howard Engleman -- give him my regards if he comes your way. News of Mrs. Hultén was interesting; she will be greatly missed in and about the Hill.

This week takes me to New York for a few days on business; with travel and hotel reservations as they are at present, the trip does not hold much inducement, but orders must be carried out.

We have been having lots of heat with plenty of rain; the humidity has been very bad this summer.

Milton is getting along fine in school. Oke (the faculty) play his softball team tomorrow evening -- he is an excellent pitcher. I saw the Red Sox defeat the Tigers last Sat. P.M. -- Hank Greenberg looked pretty weak -- no wheres near a hit of any kind.

In haste I must close, but these few lines will let you know that I am well and
