Dear Doctor:

It's funny but way out here you run into people you know. The other day we were over on a tiny island for a little recreation. The officers of my ship were playing the crew in a game of basketball.
After the game I met two Lawrence boys.
The first was Lt. Bill Arthur of Lawrence & the second was Dean Moore who lives in Gardner Kansas. I knew Bill well, but had only met Dean once or twice before. Then I discovered that Bill Forgy's ship was anchored a mile or so from mine. We have seen each other three or four times now & it's really wonderful to see an old K.V.'er. He gave me the last issue he had of your "Rebounds". I enjoyed it very much Doctor & would appreciate it if I could be included on your mailing list. ✓

I enjoy my duty a lot, but of
