

what happened.

I politely informed them that I had two semesters of V-12 Nav. So they up and made me a striking Quartermaster, the best rate on a ship, and by far the cleanest.

One works on the bridge and in the control tower with the brass. Its a terrible big joke, but its all right with me. If you ever have any words with Comm.

^{Baum} ~~Baum~~ let him know, my failure or near failure as a V-12 Nav. was not in vain.

I'm not receiving any of my mail, because conditions before this, were very tempering and I wasn't in one place long enough to receive any mail.

I've been having some thing bother my conscience, since I have arrived back from leave, but
