

November 28, 1941.

Mr. John McCormick,
1414 Robinson St.,
Knoxville, Iowa.

Dear Coach McCormick:

Returning home I desire to tell you how very much I enjoyed being with you and your good wife in your apartment home.

Won't you let me know how Mrs. McCormick is feeling and if the treatment was of any benefit. I sincerely trust that she gets along nicely.

Please remember me kindly to my good friends in Knoxville. It was a very pleasant occasion.

Sincerely yours,
