My dear "Phog":

Is it against the Big Six rules to have some practice sessions in basketball? We would not need to play a game--just practice for a couple of hours or so.

I would like to have two such sessions, but in case that could not be arranged, one would do a lot of good.

Since I am not coaching football this year, I am in a position to start basketball earlier, and will be able to put up some sort of opposition within a couple of weeks from now.

If this sounds good, let me hear from you.

Very truly yours,
