Dear Dr., Allen;-

I feel so sorry to be bothering you again, but, if you have a little minute some time to spare, would you be kind enough to tell me what I should do now in regard to the Arthur Spangberg account? I have written to the Judge, also to Arthur, also to his Mother, and no reply from any of them. I really don't know what steps to take now. I really need the money very badly. Miss Elliott was here the other day and she said to tell you she would pay the $2.00 I lent him to go to St. Joseph to attend his Father's funeral. I would not accept it until we have lost all hope of getting it from Judge Mason.

You said that Arthur had worked some, and you would see that I got that money.

Hoping you will forgive me for taking up so much of your time. and thanking you for everything I remain,

Very gratefully,

Mrs. Wellhausen
