Dear Dana:

I acknowledge receipt of your very fine letter and thank you for your good wishes.

I also appreciate your courtesy in asking me to speak on your Wednesday noon luncheon club, the Metro Club. I had just previously written a letter to the McPherson Rebounders' Club at McPherson, Kansas, promising them that I would go there on March 26.

Since the state provides no traveling expenses it will be necessary for them to pay my expenses out there, and I am awaiting a reply from them. If my expenses for traveling by car out there are too much I will be free on March 26 and will accept your invitation. If March 26 is taken then I will be happy to be with you on April 4.

I should hear from McPherson in a very short time and if you can hold these two dates until I hear from them, then I can accept yours definitely. In my letter I insisted they answer me promptly.

Thanking you for the nice things you have said, and assuring you it would be a pleasure to be with you and your group, I am,

Fraternally yours,
