

ARMY SERVICE FORCES
K. C. OFFICER PROCUREMENT DISTRICT
500 PORTER BLDG., 34TH & BDWY.
KANSAS CITY 2, MISSOURI

Dear Sir:

Again we need your help. We are writing you because men in your position are most likely to know qualified individuals for these positions.

This office has been directed by Washington Headquarters to procure Physical Reconditioning Officers for the Army. Those accepted will be commissioned as Captains and Majors.

They will attend a four weeks' training course at Lexington, Virginia. After completion of the course they will be assigned to Service Commands, General Hospitals and Convalescent Hospitals to take charge of the reconditioning program.

Only very high calibre men are desired. They must possess a strong capacity for leadership and organization; have a working knowledge of technical aspects of physical and educational reconditioning, and be ingenious and resourceful in adapting this program to the needs of patients assigned thereto.

Qualifications:

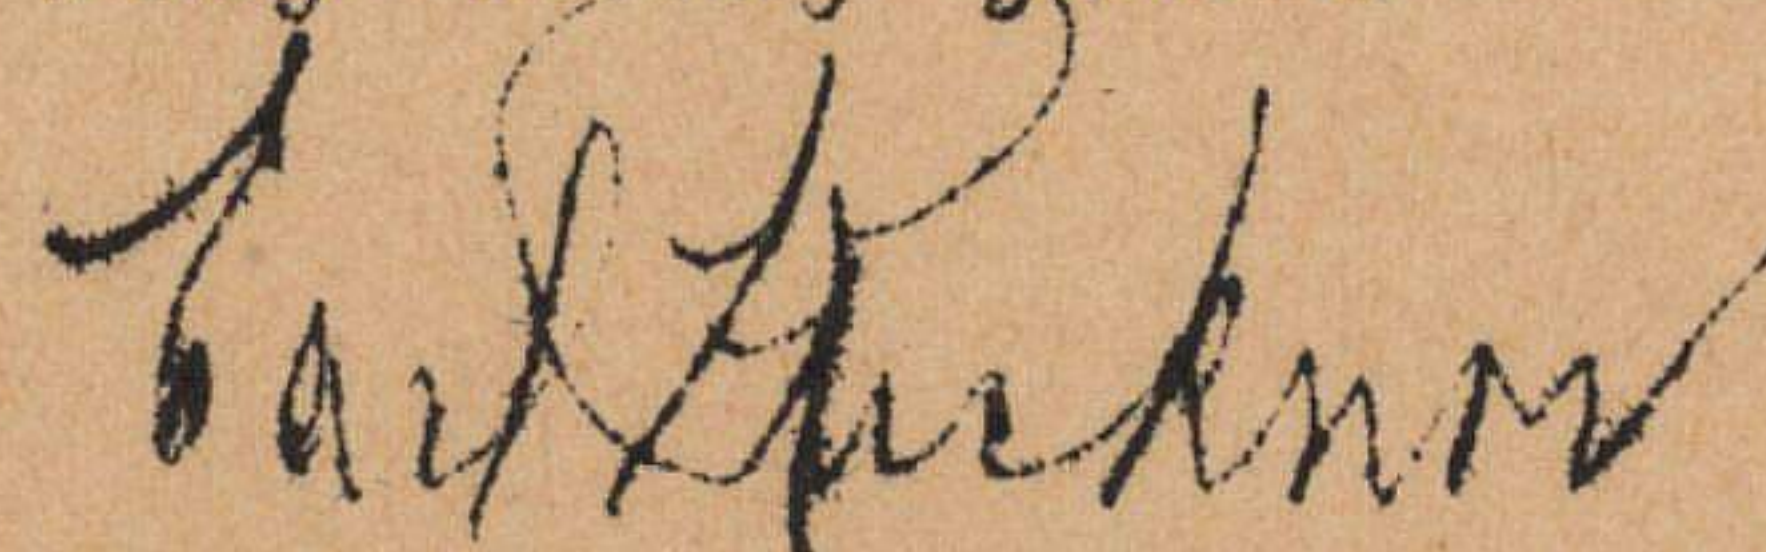

(1) Education Must hold a Master's or Doctor's Degree in physical education or related fields: such as, medicine, physiology, public health, or hygiene. A minimum of at least fifty semester hours in physical education in under graduate and graduate courses is required, which will include a combined total of twelve semester hours in the two subjects of anatomy and physiology, or twelve semester hours in kinesiology. Study in corrective physical education is desirable.

(2) Experience Must have had at least ten years of successful supervisory and administrative experience gained in directing the physical education program in a college or university, in larger high schools in major cities, or in large public school systems. Experience in coaching is not of primary importance. Experience in the teaching of class work in physical education and in organization and administration of physical education programs is of greater importance.

(3) Age Minimum age thirty-eight; maximum age fifty-five.

If you know a qualified man whom you believe would be interested will you please send us his name and address? Your assistance in this matter will be very much appreciated.

Very truly yours

EARL F. RECKNOR
MAJOR, INF.

OFFICER-IN-CHARGE.
