

September 23, 1937.

Mr. A. Van Horebeck,
University Gardens,
University of Kansas.

Dear Friend:

I want you to know how much I appreciated those roses.

In fact, I liked them so well that I am using my nerve to ask you to clip a few that you think would soon wither, and if you will bring them in I will remember you in my prayers.

That is worse than the cash and carry fellow. I am asking you to carry, with no cash.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education.