UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN MISSION LEADERS

Jesse M. Bader is the National Director of the University Christian Mission, and Executive Secretary of the Department of Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Paul J. Braisted is the Executive Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, with a rich experience as a missionary leader in India.

J. Harry Cotton is now the pastor of the Broad Street Presbyterian Church in Columbus, Ohio, but he has been a wide traveler and lecturer in India, China, and Japan on the philosophy of religion.

Harold A. Ehrensperger is a member of the faculty of the Chicago Campus of Northwestern University. He is a foremost authority on drama, having edited several drama magazines and having lectured before the drama departments of many universities.

Frances P. Greenough is the National Field Student Secretary for the Northern Baptist Convent. On many campuses she has served as a specialist in young people's problems.

E. Stanley Jones is the spiritual leader of Christianity in the Orient, but through his books and lectures he has become an interpreter of religion to the whole world.

Herbert King is the National Secretary of the Christian Movement among Negro Students of the National Council of Student Christian Associations.

T. Z. Koo is one of China's outstanding Christians of today. He is Secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation in Shanghai, China, and is devoting his life to the achievement of a Christian world fellowship.

Mrs. Mildred Inskip Morgan is Director of Parent Education in the Congregational Church of Iowa City. She is in continual demand by colleges because of her insight into problems that affect the personality, and has gone into 35 colleges in the last 4 years.

Albert W. Palmer is the President of Chicago Theological Seminary. He is a religious scholar, but more than that, he is a man of broad social experience and insight.

Winnifred Wygal is Secretary of the Laboratory Division of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Herrick B. Young is Secretary of Missionary Personnel of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. His journalistic and missionary experience in Asia has put him in great demand as a lecturer on the Near East.
