Dr. Koo served for nine years as an official in the Administrative Department of the Chinese Railway Service. He then joined the Staff of the National Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of China. In 1925 he was a member of the Second Opium Conference called in Switzerland by the League of Nations, being one of the three chosen, through thirty-four organizations, to represent the Chinese people as a whole.

SUBJECTS UPON WHICH ESPECIALLY QUALIFIED TO SPEAK:

"International Relations"
"Race Relations"
"The Meaning of Christian Faith"

COMMENTS:

Of Dr. Koo's coming, Dr. John R. Mott said: "I can think of no personality in all Asia whose message and influence would be more helpful just at this time. He is one of the most lucid, convincing and impressive Oriental speakers whom I have ever heard. No matter what kind of gathering it may be which he is called upon to address, invariably he makes a deeply satisfying and inspiring impression. The Archbishop of Canterbury told me not long since the Koo had impressed him as in some respects the ablest Oriental whom he had ever met."
