First class tennis - sold by Bill Tilden Co. You naturally gave tennis a big hand, it deserves it perhaps, but Bill Tilden was the attraction <sup>magical</sup> <sup>his idyllic success</sup> and his <sup>temperamental moods</sup>

He did not beat tennis as a sport. The public paid to see him. Here at the U of Kansas we have 26 tennis courts for students to play on yet at the U of Cal @ Berkeley they have but 7. When I visited Yale <sup>new</sup> plant a few years back their <sup>out</sup> <sup>tant</sup> <sup>cas</sup> <sup>in</sup> <sup>tant</sup> <sup>cas</sup> courts plus a dozen others totaled an enormous expense with the possibility of <sup>but</sup> few participating. <sup>time BB was presented</sup>

Tennis was a major sport in the colleges in 1890. <sup>and perhaps</sup> Professors and staid men played it assiduously in the gay nineties.

~~If 3 or 4 million people play tennis as you state then I am sure that 20,000,000 is a small figure for basketball participation.~~

Badminton played by millions in gyms, Y's, Armories & Clubs.

Croquet, bowls, archery, deck tennis all of these are easily learned by anyone.

Ping pong played by 5 millions. I am surprised that you would doubt my veracity regarding 20 million <sup>BB</sup> when you see the word millions so lightly. Why not question the printed word since anything will lie on paper.

One thing I'm going to fight out both for myself and for you - the number of people playing B.B. both in the U.S. and the world.

It will take a great deal of <sup>fact</sup> I will <sup>show</sup> <sup>you</sup> <sup>that</sup> <sup>BB</sup> <sup>is</sup> <sup>not</sup> <sup>a</sup> <sup>minor</sup> <sup>game</sup>. And I am convinced that I can show you - <sup>with</sup> <sup>you</sup> <sup>not</sup> <sup>a</sup> <sup>minor</sup> <sup>game</sup>.
