

July 6, 1940.

Professor O. D. Douglas,
Department of Educational Psychology,
The University of Texas,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Professor Douglas:

It was very kind indeed of you to write me as you did in your letter of June 27th. I am to give a short intensive course in basketball for one week, from August 12 to 17. I believe your Coach Gray will give the course for the full term and I am just to augment his course, as I understand it.

For that reason, being there only a week, I will not be placed in a very favorable position to rent an apartment. I imagine we will stay at one of the hotels. Mrs. Allen plans to accompany me.

Do you know of anything we might get for a week that would be reasonable? I will appreciate your kind reply.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH