Dear Boots:

I have just written Bud Browning congratulating him on the fine achievements of your wonderful basketball team. It was excellent coaching of some good material, but with one of the outstanding stars absent. For that reason I thought Bud deserved a special commendation.

Your men are a high grade bunch of gentlemen and they conducted themselves in the finest possible way. They deserve great credit, and much of that credit goes to you in placing the high standard upon the men you pick.

With every good wish to you and your wonderful staff, which includes none other than Paul Endacott, one of my choicest friends, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
