

DIES ON A QUAIL HUNT

A. E. TALBOT, VETERAN GOLFER, VICTIM OF HEART ATTACK.

Ed Bengert and Johnny Piper, Companions on Trip, Find Friend Face Down With Quail in Hand.

A. E. Talbot, 52 years old, 5527 Oak street, died of a heart attack on a quail hunt yesterday afternoon near Creighton, Mo.

Ed Bengert, 2814 Monroe, gunsmith at the Elliott Arms company; Johnny Piper, 1405 Walnut street, and Talbot flushed a covey of thirty quail in a draw but only Talbot followed the birds down. Bengert and Piper heard a couple of shots and waited for Talbot's return.

The two hunters later started a search for their companion and they found him with his face down and holding a quail in his hand. Talbot, an employee of the Elliott Arms company twenty-three years, was widely known in golf and hunting circles here. He was a member of the Ivanhoe Golf club, where he was club champion several years.
He was a graduate of Oklahoma A. and M. college.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs.
Ina Talbot, of the home address; two sons, Capt. James Talbot, Roswell, N. M.; Capt. George Edward Talbot, Baton Rouge, La., and a granddaughter.

Funeral arrangements will be made today. The body is at the Stine and McClure Funeral home.

YULE TREE TO WHITE HOUSE.

F. D. R. to Receive 25-Foot Balsam From Berlin, N. Y.

BERLIN, N. Y., Dec. 17.(AP)—A bit of Christmas was on the way t to the White House from gift from York sta-sioner, to

Mr. R.
Christmas
tion dep.
1930, wh
governor.

Cuba su
world's sug.

Hospitaliz
icy. Mutual

Ease Soot

Head
by minc
promptly
fectivene
neuralgi
only as
cian wh
sizes.

HERE'S ADOI

when ext
red by r
quickly
pimp

...salam tree, too large
...be