(Sender's complete address above)

Dear Doc:

At Sea
Sorry to have taken so long between letters but circumstances were against me. I received the March Jayhawk in Hawaii but since I haven't received any mail for three months I'm behind on the news.

Haven't met many Jayhawks yet even though I've been all over this ocean. Have one traveling with me named Judge Sloan. He was Head Sachem a year ago.

Got into a pretty fair ball game the other day. I found out that laying around on a ship doesn't help your physical condition any. Kicks you in the legs pretty bad.

Well Doc, you'll be starting again in a couple of months. Here's an early wish for a fine team. Keep your sneer's bent.

Sincerely Bob Turner
