Dear C. W.:

Thank you for your very nice letter of the twenty-eighth instant and the nice things that you had to say.

I am deeply grateful to you for the broucher printed by the Navy department, in which they tell the graphic story of Warner's squadron. It is a most gripping story, this wonderful portrayal of the great part that your son played. I want to use this in one of my Rebounds.

I know with what fierce pride you read over and over again this gripping portrayal of one of the greatest fights that men have ever fought. I find myself unable to put into words the things I feel and the things that I would like to say to you.

Sincerely,

Forrest C. Allen
