Dear Jack:

I do not know whether this late letter will catch up with you or not. Your letter was misplaced in a pile of correspondence regarding the basketball gambling expose, and I did not pull it out of the file soon enough.

I appreciate your loyalty to the State of Kansas, and I trust that you will stay in Kansas. You certainly have not caused me any trouble in writing, and I was delighted to hear from you. I am sending you a copy of our Jayhawk Rebounds, a publication that we get out each month for our boys overseas. If you are interested, write me another letter giving me your present address and I will put you on the mailing list for the Rebounds.

We would be happy to have you and Massey at K. U. when this fuss is over. We certainly would be glad to have you come and visit the University and have a talk with us after you are mustered out. Drop me a line and tell me how things have been going with you.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
