Dear Dr. Allen:

I am deep in your book and it is swell. What I can't understand is why you would be willing to divulge all that basketball lore, gained through so many years of effort, to other coaches who might use it against you.

I would like to come to Lawrence any afternoon at your convenience next week. My schedule leaves me all afternoons free, and I go to work at 7:30 at night for the morning paper. I could meet you, say, at 1 o'clock, and leave in time to catch the 4:45 train to Kansas City.

Photographs we can take care of in about two weeks when Dean Cochran returns from vacation. The project should be completed by July 1, and I believe I can do it in about three trips.

Sincerely,

Howard Turtle
