Dear Phog:

I presume you know that Jack Buckman of the Argentine High School has entered K. U. this fall.

This boy had a little unfortunate experience with one of the officials in a basketball game here, and was suspended, but I think the experience was a good lesson to him. I know the boy quite well and he is a very likable lad and I do not believe he will ever have any more trouble of the kind. He is a splendid basketball prospect and is an extraordinary high jumper for a high school boy, having cleared 6 ft., 5-1/2 inches in high school. I believe you will find him a splendid basketball prospect and I think it will pay you to show him just a little personal attention. He may make you an outstanding star.

I would like to come up some Sunday and have a golf game with you if you have time to indulge in such frivolities on Sunday.

JET:G

Yours sincerely,

J. E. Turner
