

Girls' State Closes

The third annual Sunflower Girls' State closed here Sunday noon with the presentation of certificates of award. Earlier in the morning a special church service was conducted by the Rev. Alpha H. Kenna, department chaplain of the American Legion and also chaplain in the army reception center at Fort Leavenworth.

A formal dance in the Union ballroom Saturday evening climaxed the week's social activities.

Mrs. Patricia Solander, representative of the state highway division, spoke on safety during the Saturday morning session. "Taking A Foresight" was the title of an address made by Robert Hart, department Americanism chairman of the American Legion.

All Girls Staters were excused on Saturday afternoon to go shopping, sightseeing or whatever they chose.

Two hundred forty-seven girls from all over Kansas attended this year's Girls' State session. Girls were housed in six sorority houses but ate their meals at the Union building. All meetings and lectures were held at the Union.

Students To Dance Next Week

Russ Chambers' and his band, a dance organization composed mostly of members of Clyde Bysom's Hill band, will play for a dance on the campus some time next week, Dr. F. C. "Phog" Allen, director of Summer Session recreation, announced today.

This will be the first of a series of six dances to be held each week, and the first time that a Hill band will have played for Summer Session students. Allen set Tuesday as a possible open date for the affair, other nights being taken by Music week activities and the lecture series.

In cool weather the dances will be held in the ballroom of the Memorial Union building, and during warmer weather on the street between Fowler shops and the anatomy building. The road will be closed, and corn meal spread on the pavement.

Sidney Dawson, Negro fine arts student, will do the vocals for Russ Chambers' band. Dawson is noted for his classical presentations, and only recently made his debut as a jazz singer with Clyde Bysom's organization.

"The aim of the band is to play the same style as the old Bysom band, with the exception of the brass section, and to add a commercial touch with Dawson," said Russ Chambers.

Wayne Ruppenthal will front the organization with his trumpet. Ruppenthal has been a member of Hill bands for the past five years, and last semester composed many of selections for the student musical show, "On with the Show."

No admission will be charged to the dances, and according to "Phog" Allen, "all Summer Session students, their wives and sweethearts, are welcome."

Archery To Begin

Archery will be added to the recreation program some time this week, Dr. F. C. Allen, director, announced today.

Mrs. Ernie Vanek will have charge of the practice.

Faculty Wives Entertain

The wives of resident faculty members of the Education department will entertain the wives of students in the department Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. H. E. Chandler, 2245 Rhode Island.

This is the first of three parties to be held during the summer. There will be tables for bridge and Red Cross sewing.
