

MONDAY - NOVEMBER 4, 1940 - 2 P.M.

A few suggestions for making the 1941 Summer Session of the University of Kansas attractive to prospective students.

1. Series of lectures by Allen Crafton and use of Museum Of Modern Art motion pictures.
2. Summer Session play by Allen Crafton.
3. Campus tours to spots of interest including:
  - a. Astronomy
  - b. Dyche
  - c. Spooner-Thayer
  - d. Geology
4. Stress recreational opportunities for women.
5. Continuation and enlargement of Dr. Allen's play and recreation program.
6. More campus song fests.
7. Continuation of the musical program by Dean Swarthout.
8. Enlarge and improve program of conferences, institutes, and exhibits.
9. Cooperation with city motion picture theaters to secure weekly admission for student activity ticket holders.
10. Air conditioning in sections of the library and Union Building.
11. Use of swimming pool in gymnasium.
12. More mixers to get group acquainted.
13. Include hospital service.
14. Have more convocations and bring some outstanding speakers to the campus.
15. Use pictures in advertising materials sent to prospective students.
16. Stress new housing facilities afforded by Corbin Hall, Miller Hall, Watkins Hall, Battenfeld Hall, Carruth Hall, and Templin Hall.
