

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1940

Phy. Ed. Department Aids Play Program For School Children

The department of physical education at the University is cooperating with the Lawrence program of supervised play for school-age children during the summer months by furnishing about twenty members of the supervisory staff.

Miss Joie Stapleton, assistant professor of physical education, is chairman of the summer program, and directs the work of University graduates and students who supervise the playground activities.

At Cordley school, Miss Evelyn Kinney, senior from Iola, is assisted by Ralph Dugan, a summer session student.

At New York and McAlester schools, Jerry Ulm, a graduate student, is assisted by Bob Hogen, sophomore. Both live in Lawrence.

At Pinckney school, Miss Mickie Learnard, graduate student, is assisted by Miss Mae Turner, graduate and rural teacher. George Stapleton, senior, and Miss Evelyn Herriman, junior, will work at Woodlawn school.

The supervision of junior and senior high school boys is carried out by Maurice Cannaday, Dick Cayton, and George Wong Woi.

Miss Lois Wisler and Miss Julie

Ruth Henry are supervising the play of junior high school girls.

Don Thompson is giving instruction in golf, tennis, and archery, and Miss Elizabeth Nusbaum is aiding on the playgrounds when needed. Miss Margaret Hays is in charge of the music, and Virgil Wise is helping with swimming instruction.

Dr. F. C. Allen, head of the physical education department, has granted the use of the University tennis courts and golf course during the morning hours for the use of youngsters. The supervisors are on duty five days a week from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Three Lawrence men are aiding the University staff. Dr. L. E. Bice is giving tennis instruction; Orville Stone will instruct in golf, and L. R. Perry, Lawrence physical education supervisor, is assisting with archery.