

Individuals In Sport News

Outstanding Preformances Feature Eventful Week

A New Hurling Star Discovered; Bob Allen to Manage Jayhawkers From Bench; Buller Sings the Blues; And Other Sport Notes

Greatest star discovery of the past week was Kenneth Wood, sensational Tiger hurler, who made his debut in the softball league by beating the heavy hitting Wildcat crew 7-3 and then stopped the Cyclones with no trouble at all. He accomplished what was considered impossible in the Cyclone affair—he fanned Dr. Lapp twice. Other managers are tearing their hair, wondering why they let this boy slip by.

Rumor has it that Bob Allen will manage his league leading Jayhawkers from the bench during the rest of the season. It seems as though Bob has taken a job pitching for the local Ban Johnson team which players are not allowed to play softball. This will be a heavy loss to the youngsters as Allen has sparked his team all season.

The opening games of the second half of the pennant race witnessed a complete reversal of results from the first day of competition. This all goes to show what a cockeyed affair this league is. Cellar teams beat league leaders and upsets are the order of the day.

John Buller, Wildcat manager, is singing the blues these days after two disastrous set backs last week. He says, "Wait 'til next year. With some more practice we'll stop those kids!"

Hedges is famous as a maker of marionettes. Two years ago she went into mass production of puppets in Kansas City. She received her bachelor of fine arts degree from the University of Kansas in 1932 and has been interested in marionette-making since that time. In 1935 she took a summer course under the tutelage of ~~the~~ ^{Tommy} T. F. Strickler, heavy hitting Cyclone from Dighton, Kansas, wonders whether he should tell the home folks that he knocked out a home-

Mammoth Hot Springs to the park hospital. Miss Barber said that her companion would be released from the hospital today.

ing the Summer Session. That Dick Amerine, swivel-hipped halfback who brought so much grief to Oklahoma and Missouri last year. Followers of Kansas football fortunes will remember Dick as the lad who snagged a pass and galloped some 25