WHERE THEY ARE???

We just received a letter from Art Partridge who is now at Indiana University in the ASTP. Also attending the same university are: Jack Nutter, Jack Reinhart, Roger James, Harvey Haines, Donald Henderson, and Paul VanDyke. We are mighty sorry to hear that Paul VanDyke has been ill, and hope he is well on the road to recovery by this time.

Ben Spencer, Harold Schneider, Bernard Walkon, J. Norman Hearin, and Seward Fleeson are reported to be at Camp Davis.

Lt. Jack Armstrong dropped in on us the first part of the month on his way to one of the air bases in Texas. Jack is transferring to the army air corps.

Duke Weltmer was on the campus for a short stay while on leave from Penn State.

Ray Evans was also a visitor to the campus during the month.

Dub Hartley writes from Camp Davis where he is well along in his OCS training.

Harlan Altman is also at Camp Davis and we enjoy his frequent letters a lot.

Another letter came from Bob Buehler who is at the University of Alabama. He expects to have a furlough in October and plans on being in Lawrence at that time.

Bob Bellamy is at Perdue University in the Marine Training Program.

Bill Stewart is now at Camp Wallace, Texas.

Herbert Borgmann is at San Antonio, Texas.

Jay Gunnels is now at Camp Roberts, according to a card received a few weeks ago.

Jack Cousins has received his call and will report to Leavenworth in about a week.

Bruce Wittenberg reported to Leavenworth this past week.

Bonner Ruff is now located at Bowdoin College in Maine.

Charlie Pentz's latest post is Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Howell Hill is at OCS and expects to be through with his training there by the end of October.

Eugene Frazier is now training for pilot at Santa Ana, California.

Received a letter from Ensign Howard Rankin. He is aboard ship in the Pacific.

Leonard Hieber has left St. Mary's and is now in training at Livermore, California.

Charlie Black, Ben Fithion, Lester Radcliff, Gordon Parker and Bill Glover are also at the Santa Ana base.

Lt. Robert Cree was in Lawrence a few days ago enroute to his post in the South.

Had a pleasant chat with Herbert C. Asel the other day. He is home on a furlough for a few days.

John Conard is in pre-flight training at Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

Ted Young paid us a visit on his way home for a furlough from John Hopkins Medical School. Ted is an army medic at the university in Baltimore.

Lt. John Kreamer was on the campus last week while on furlough enroute to his new location.

Pvt. John Krider is now located at the Missouri School of Mines, Rolla, Missouri.

Pvt. Fred Truxal has just completed his O.C.P.S. He is at Camp Barkeley, Texas. Mrs. Truxal (Peggy Osmond) is living in Abilene near to the camp.

Bill Winey is still with the Marines in the Pacific.

V-12's on the campus not reported in a previous issue are: Dan Chase, Jack Jarvis, Robert Prewitt, Prescott Ripley, John R. Stevenson, Theodore Wagner, Deam Wampler, and Dick Beach. Some 25 more were reported in the second issue of the Y News. More of the V-12's and A-12's next time.
