

Few, if any, state universities have gymnasium facilities so inadequate as has Kansas. The Kansas plant was adequate 32 years ago. It should be enlarged to accommodate the present day enrollment on modern standards. Only then can the teaching be effective, and can the department of physical education hope to approach its goal of every student playing his favorite sport or game.

* * * * *

JOURNALISM

See page 14.