

Hello Doctor F. C. Allen,

I bet this is the last person on the earth that you expected a letter from. Do you remember me Jimmy Archer. You really should because I had to caddy for you all the time to get to play golf, remember.

I am here at Pleasanton for a couple of weeks. They have a football team here that plays about like Kansas and is coached by a former Kansas all-American. Maybe you know who it is maybe not. But if I mention his name you'll know who it is, yes Sir Doctor there would be sweet memories. This man is Jim Bausch

Do you know his address if not write him a letter in with mine and I'll see that he get it. Well I have to get some Navy Beans.

Jimmy
