Dear Phog:

You put on a great exhibition with your boys last night. I want to convey my most genuine compliments to you for another grand championship.

We will all be pulling for you at our house the night you play Oklahoma. I hope you scour their plow.

I want to also thank you for your courtesy to Mrs. Wedell at Lawrence the other day.

When your season is over I should like very much to have a good visit with you concerning a number of matters.

Always with best wishes, I remain

Cordially yours,
