Dear "Phog":

This letter is being dictated, "Phog", Monday afternoon before the big game to-night. I am stressing this, because I want you to be my guest Saturday noon at my annual basket ball dinner for the officials and coaches of the playoff games Friday and Saturday. Whether Kansas wins to-night or not, I want you there Saturday noon.

For the last four years I have been underwriting this dinner, and it has grown to about sixty or seventy people. Reeves Peters does all the inviting and we invite usually just officials and people who have something to do with the basket ball games in this part of the country, including anyone who officiates at basket ball games and people who are really interested in basket ball.

Please be sure and put this down for twelve o'clock at the Hotel Continental, Saturday, March 23rd. I just won't take "no" for an answer and will expect to see you there, as, I say, whether Kansas comes out on top to-night or not, and believe me, fellow, this is one who certainly is pulling for you, and my fourteen year old boy, who played Freshman on the Pembroke-Country Day basket ball team this year, is going to be there pulling for you too. I know that with these two "pulls" you are going to win to-night. Anyway, just remember where I am expecting you to be Saturday noon - at the Hotel Continental at twelve o'clock.

Best personal regards,

George L. Williams
