Mr. Lee Williams

Glen Cove, Long Island, New York

Dear Mr. Williams:

The past two weeks here at Kansas have been a perpetual nightmare and, although I hate to make excuses, I will have to admit that I am sorry that I could not answer your letter of the 2nd of March in time that whatever information I might have had could have been of assistance to you for the report.

Since it is the 22nd of March, I assume that your need for this information is past. However, should you still wish a statement from me concerning postwar trends of intercollegiate athletics and the subsidization of athletes, I shall be happy to put time and effort into obtaining one for you.

I am sincerely sorry for the delay but, as you probably know, we have been playing basketball through the 19th of March with ever increasing vigorosity.

Sincerely yours,
