

folks are doing!

Your last letter to the boys came yesterday and it is growing each day in its accomplishment. I pass it around to different ones and they all say: "What a fine thing to do. He's really following up." I tell them "Follow up is his Gaspe!"

Was in Washington a few weeks ago to see the Quartermaster for some items.
While leaving over the country looking for stores I glanced up and there stood Lester Kappelman looking like a million dollars.
We went into a huddle that was all too short. Goad to see him.
I think you can get his address from his mother for the
