

THE BELLEVUE HOTEL

15 E STREET NORTHWEST

WASHINGTON 1, D. C.

August 6, 1944

Dear Phog: Your five letter was a mighty welcome break in a long dry spell plus a very crowded schedule at school.
I especially appreciate the fact that "Phog" took time to write when so one in Rotary is as busy as he. To know "Phog" is to know that he would do just that when others not half so busy, wouldn't be able to.
My apologies for not having written long ago about the dear job you did on the Red Cross Drive. What a job all you