Dear Doc:

I haven't written for quite a while as I've been jumping from just one place to another.

I have returned to the US and I thank God for that. I had begun to think I'd never see home again.

Upon arriving in the ~~sa~~ states I was given a 30 day leave which I spent with my wife & family. Then I was sent to the hospital for nerve treatment for 3 months. I never realized I was so "shot" until I had a chance to relax from the routine of hell over there.

I'm now going through a
