

backing not in patriotic zest, nor working in a good purpose to serve, your letter supplies the war-borne ills of living with a formidable successor.

unwillingly, its the annual "Phog" - driving hard to serve those who serve the front. The security and safe future of many friendships now derailed, isolated, forgotten by our own presence, will largely benefit because of one man's capacity to generate