Dear "Doc"

I received your welcome letter several days ago and also the copies of "Rebound", which I have read with much interest.

We have been pretty busy since your visit, we had two floods in two weeks - Our home and store were spared - Water was within about ten feet of our back door at the store. It was within about a block and a half of our home - The east and south east part of town had about two feet in most of the houses. Of course all basements were filled and people have been pumping out ever since -

I have had lot of nice compliments on your visit and talk here - you made a world of friends and everyone has a good impression of you and your
