

returned to the state, and as you may know, is out of the Army and heading up the Athletic Institute.

Frank Mc Cormick, Dir. of Ath. at Minnesota, is in Paris, in charge of the post war, Army athletic program - a real, Mons sign job! I was in to see him a few weeks ago and found Cornwall of N. Car. on McC's staff, and also Schottinger
- who incidentally is a Major. a lot of other prominent fellows in the athletic world have come over to help put on this program - which is tremendous in scope.

Did I tell you that my son is over here and we manage to get together about once a month. He is based in England but like all our youth kids manage somehow to wrangle a reason to fly
