

It appears endless - This persistent laudation on the "Gayhawk Rebonds" - but there, Sir it is only analogous with the consistent stream of "good -will" running throughout the text of your "blanket letter". I enjoy reminding you of this satisfaction.

My life has had but few "interruptions" since you last had word from me. The normal pace of both professional and personal activity is now resumed.

W. S. Wiley