

U. S. ARMY AIR FORCES

miss any shots any you fellows can help him out I would certainly appreciate it.

The morning I left Lawrence last March I asked Bruce Cameron if he had any suggestions as to a branch of the service to choose. He suggested the light artillery. You may tell him I would up in the lightest, fastest artillery Uncle Sam possesses, namely B'29 gunnery. Too light and too fast.

Was surprised to learn that E. C. Quigley was named head of Athletics at Kansas. He should do very well. I supposed he probably had reached the point of satiety in sports. I guess the naturals never reach that point. It would be fun to hear him roar illegal in a Big 6 directors meeting. Hoping this finds you in good spirits and ready to go I remain

Sincerely yours

Lloyd Williams
