

As I daily review my character, though sometimes necessarily biased, I am encouraged to notice a trend for strength, purpose, and worldly alertness. And to the many reputable gentlemen whose counsel has been mine my gratitude is unlimited.

With greater certainty that we are winning the war, and peace as well, I face the future with a bright, fresh outlook. Let us hope the "Dumbarton Oaks conference" will live up to the expectations.

Self has been written on sporting records as having been brought back to life. The P.C.A. at S phone recently exposed this trend. All golfers should be made happy.
