

nation. I hope Jack Ballard limbers up this year. It was thoughtful of you to send the list of games to be played.
I intend to keep up keen interest throughout the entire season.

I appreciate the convivialities which have been extended. But I know that I am doing only a minor part in this war. The boys on the front lines, where the smoke now lies thick, are the real and only heroes of this war - for what greater can the sacrifice be than one's own life?

I have the duty soon - please remember I do. Think a great deal of our friendship -

I thoughtfully - Bill Winey Jr.