Box 297, Kansas City, Kansas

Dear Lyle,

Your letter of the 17th instant just arrived. I am happy to pass your order for eight tickets for the Kansas-Missouri football game on. The tickets are $2.25 apiece which makes a total of $18 plus 10¢ for mailing insurance charges.

Mr. Earl Falkenstien, the financial secretary of the Athletic Association is in Milwaukee with the football team. They play Marquette tonight. He returns Monday morning and I will then turn this check, properly endorsed over to him and will ask him to give you the very best that he can at the present time.

I notice that you live at 2000 Washington Ave. I'm glad to know this, because you're living in the neighborhood of my good friends, Lacey Haynes, and Tom VanCleave, Jr. You should get acquainted with those two gentlemen. Lacey lives at 2300 Washington Ave.

I am happy that you're in such a fine neighborhood and doing so well.

Sincerely,

FCA/pg
