Mr. Larry Winn, Jr.,
Sports Editor, WHB,
Scarritt Building,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Larry:

I was happy to hear from you, and I trust you will find it possible to get over to see some of our games.

I have talked to Mr. Falkenstien about the policy of obliging sports announcers with tickets, and he informs me that since practically all the seats are sold they do not feel they can give out complimentary tickets for this purpose.

Your dad's "K" ticket, of course, will be available. The only cost on that will be the tax. I believe, Larry, if your dad did not plan to use his "K" ticket that you could go in on that. However, the tickets are going so fast that it would be well to contact Mr. Falkenstien about a reservation at the earliest possible moment.

With best wishes to you and your good dad,

I am

Fraternally yours,
