

KATHERINE RAWLS - Miami Beach, Fla., Swimmer and Diver.

Member of 1932 and 1936 Olympic teams taking second place in the springboard dive in both Olympic games.

Although still a youngster she has won 27 national championships and holds 18 American records in breaststroke, free style and medley swimming.

She has done more to advance the sport of swimming than any other girl in the United States.

She has a charming personality and unfailing good sportsmanship.

She is modest in victory, courageous in defeat and considerate of other opponents.

Is always willing to give advice and help others. By her example she has stimulated interest in her sport and her qualities of leadership have been an inspiration to young swimmers.

She is willing at all times to do her part to make swimming meets successful.

Toured Japan last summer with an American team and her modesty and ability made her a great favorite wherever she appeared.

* * * * *

ARCHIE J. SAN ROMANI - Kansas State Teachers College, Distance Runner

Member of the 1936 Olympic team, winning fourth place in the 1500 meter run.

Generally regarded as having the best chance of lowering the present world's record in the mile and 1500 meter runs.

Trains faithfully and is always in excellent condition.

Is a clean sportsmanlike star beyond impeachment.

Soft spoken and quite mannered, he nevertheless has the confidence that figures in the make-up of every champion.

Has made a great contribution to track and field both at home and abroad.

Possesses a personality and character which establishes him as a real gentleman.

At the national championships in Milwaukee he stumbled and fell thereby losing an opportunity to win the national championship and possibly create a new world's record. When pressed for a statement he refused to blame anyone and accepted his misfortune in a true sportsmanlike manner.

* * * * *

WILLIAM SEFTON - University of Southern California, Pole Vaulter

Member of the 1936 Olympic team. Captain of the University of Southern California track team. Joint holder of the world's record for the pole vault at 14 feet 11 inches. Broke world's record for the pole vault for high schools in 1933.

Was a brilliant student and won the diamond medal at U.S.C. the highest honor that a graduating senior at U.S.C. may receive.

Modest and gentlemanly in demeanor and always considerate of his fellow athletes.

Has set a fine example by his leadership and strict observance of training rules. Has the highest ideals of amateurism.

Was elected captain of the track team that toured Japan last summer and was exceedingly popular wherever he appeared.

* * * * *